Geographical Background:

The Catholic Archdiocese of Arusha was canonically instituted a Diocese under the leadership of the late Rt. Rev. Dennis Durning, C.S.Sp; its first Bishop and Founder in 1963. This Diocese is named after the town of Arusha that lies at the foot of mount Meru, one of the peaks of Kilimanjaro Mountain range to the west of Kibo, the highest peak of the range. The Diocese is the largest of all the Dioceses in Tanzania stretching some 400 kms. South - wards over the Maasai steppes to Kiteto, bordering Morogoro and Dodoma Dioceses; 200 kms. to the west through Monduli over the Ngorongoro crater along the famous Olduvai Gorge, over the Serengeti plains and bordering Musoma and Shinyanga Dioceses; 400 kms. North - West to Loliondo bordering Ngong Diocese in Kenya; and 300 kms South-Eastwards, bordering Moshi, Same and Tanga Dioceses. The Diocese covers an area of 67,340 square kilometers.

Historical Background:

The Evangelization work in the Diocese started when the Holy Ghost Fathers of the then Vicariate of Kilimanjaro opened a Mission Station at a place known as Mesopotamia in 1926. This Mission Station has developed into the present day St. Theresa Parish. In 1939 another Mission out-station was opened at Usa River and was followed by another one at Monduli in 1953. In 1961, a mission station was opened at Emboreet in Simanjiro situated at a distance of 110 kms. south of Arusha town. The following year (1962) another Mission Station was opened further south at Kijungu - 420 kms. away from Arusha town.

At this juncture, the entire area which was now known as the Diocese of Arusha, was demarcated by the Missionary tours from Mesopotamia in the centre of Arusha town to Usa River in the East, Monduli and Loliondo (North Maasai) in the North West and Simanjiro Emboreet, Kibaya and Kijungu (South Maasai) in the South. In 1963, Arusha was canonically instituted a Diocese under the leadership of the American Holy Ghost Fathers. The late Rt. Rev. Bishop Dennis Vincent Durning who had pioneered the Missionary Centre of Loliondo was appointed the first Bishop of Arusha in 1963
